

Equal and Equitable Access

We all succeed, we all get opportunities, we all are valued, we don't ignore history or research, we applies to me.

Plurality Matters

Diversity brings beauty, differences don't mean we don't get along, practicing unity in this classroom gives us an opportunity to practice unity in the world.

We Love

We forgive, laugh, appreciate, offer fresh starts, have hobbies and passions, we practice joyfulness, acceptance, and create safety, we feel heard, seen, trusted, valued, supported, encouraged

We Hope

We plan, experiment, innovate, advocate, seek counsel, try hard, listen, ask questions, show up, study, make friends, join clubs and organizations

We Succeed

We reflect, analyze, celebrate, set goals, pursue passions, make connections, test boundaries, seek help, think big, plan strategically, move confidently

We Advocate

We ask questions, research information, think critically, consider audience, analyze needs, identify resources, accept help, reject distractions, communicate clearly, seek solutions

We Co-Lead

We share power, learn together, mutually solve problems, hear each other, respect each other, value each other, trust each other, commit to each other, establish norms

We Produce

We brainstorm, we plan step-by-step, we draft, we propose, we revise, we cut, we release, we set goals, we follow protocols, we learn new procedures, we work with teams, we produce content, we research ideas, we compare viewpoints, we consider products and deadlines

We Curate

We evaluate, analyze, reflect, overcome, feel pride, reject shame, think subjectively, think objectively, share interests, instruct and explain, express, connect, showcase and display variety, consider process and learning standards,

